Primary vendors: Once you have been contacted by the participating district, you may commence working for them under the terms and conditions listed in the specifications. The contractual parties are the participating district which will issue the appropriate purchase orders and your firm as the vendor.

We sent each participating district a list of awarded vendors for each trade in each county including your firm's name, address, contact person and phone number so that they may contact you when work in your trade is needed.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact Tara Jamrozik at (973) 321-9384 or myself at (973) 321-9381.

Very truly yours,
